LAST SATURDAY NIGHT'S FIRE

Chas. King & Sons' Warehouses and contents Destroyed.

LOSS IS ABOUT $200,000

Firemen Battle All Night With Flame—The "Firefighter" From Washington Aids Department.

The third destructive fire on the same square in recent years broke out shortly before twelve o'clock Saturday night and the large brick warehouse of Charles King and Sons, on the southeast corner of Queen and Lee streets was destroyed. The fire department made a hasty response and worked heroically, but the dense smoke which poured from the building rendered it impossible to enter, and notwithstanding their every exertion to extinguish the flames, the structure with most of the contents was burned. Fortunateiy the fire was confined to the building in which it originated, and the main office structure with the books and other valuables were saved. The warehouse will be rebuilt as soon as possible, and business of the firm will proceed without interruption, arrangements having been made to rent other warehouses for the present.

When Chief Gronau reached the blaze it had already made considerable headway, as it had evidently been burning on the interior for some time before being discovered. The Queen street warehouse in which the fire started was a brick and metal building, two stories in height and 75 by 100 feet in size. It was stocked with groceries salt, fish, sugar, flour, baskets and two car loads of matches. The entire contents were destroyed. On the east of this building is a three story ware house, also of brick with metal roof and inside fire walls, and this also was completely destroyed. This building was occupied on the first floor by the shipping department and the second and third floors were stocked with canned goods, tobacco, chandlers, supplies, stationary and dry goods. A fire wall which partitioned this warehouse from the main warehouse and office saved the remainder of the property from destruction and also kept the fire from spreading to the lumber yards of W. A. Smoot and Co. on the east and south. In the main building was a large stock of Christmas goods and and novelties which were not damaged

Although every available piece of apparatus in the local department was rushed to the scene and the Alexandria firemen, largely composed of volunteers, worked like veterans in their effort to obstruct the progress of the flames, Fire Chief Robert E. Gronau, of Alexandria department, soon realized that additional aid would be necessary to prevent the destruction of the big manufacturing plants and lumber yards that surrounded the King warehouses. He telephoned to the Washington department at 1.10 o'clock and about 20 minutes later "The Firefighter" arrived at the pier of the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company. The vessel soon had five additional streams turned on the burning buildings, but with the additional help little progress was made in preventing the further progress of the fire. An attempt was made to secure several engines from Washington to be brought over the road, but before the arrangements were complete the fire was placed under control.

The first alarm turned in at 11:50 o'clock when the watchman W. A. Shinn notified the police station house that smoke was coming from underneath the door of the King warehouse. An alarm was turned in followed immediately by a second and a third. The entire department was turned out and the reserve engine pressed into service. The Reliance steam engine had just reached Alexandria yesterday morning from Hartford, Conn. where it had been sent to be repaired and was also hastily assembled and used in pumping water from Queen street dock.

The building and contents were heavily insured and the firm will not suffer any loss, according to statements made today.

The King warehouses are in the center of the manufacturing and wholesale center of Alexandria. On the east and north are the lumber yards of W. A. Smoot and Co. and adjoining those the yards of Henry K. Field and Co. comprising three squares of highly inflamable material. On the west is the big grocery warehouse of J. N. Crilly and the bakery of the Corby Bros. and on the north is the plant of the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Co. Nearby are the works of the Alexandria gas plant and the factory of the Mutual Ice Co.

While the fire was under control at daybreak the firemen were kept at work for hours afterwards and today were still pouring water on the smouldering ashes. The Firefighter" returned to Washington at 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

There were no injuries, although several of the volunteers were taken from the burning buildings, having been overcome by smoke. Several members of Relief Hook and Ladder Co. had a narrow escape when a ladder upon which they were climbing turned over and threw them to the ground.

It was not until late yesterday afternoon that the firemen were able to leave the scene of the fire and after they were gone volunteers kept streams playing on the smouldring ruins. Nothing is left of the big warehouses but the walls. While the exact loss is not known, it is estimated to be from $175,000 to $200,000. The loss on the stock alone is said to be $160,000.

The Alexandria firemen and volunteers worked the engines exactly thirteen hours, this being the longest record for an individual fire in Alexandria in many years.

The origin of the fire is still unknown.

Many people were still on the streets when the alarm was sounded, who with hundreds of others who were about to retire hastened to the scene when they saw the northeastern heavens illuminated by the flames. In a few minutes a dense crowd of people was banked in the neighborhood of the conflagration. The members of the police were on the ground and the wagons used by the firm were filled with books and other valuables from the office building and carried to the station house far away from danger.

Refreshments were furnished the firefighters throughout the night and yesterday.

As stated above this is the third destructive fire which has occurred on this square in recent years. In February 1895, the George R. Hill bakery, on the site of the building now occupied by J. H. Crilly, on the opposite side of the street, was gutted by fire. The cold was intense, but the heroic work of the firemen confined flames, as they did last night. In May 1909, the plaining mill of W. A. Smoot and Co., adjoining the King buildings on the south, was burned. A northwest wind was prevailing at the time, and the frame structure was a big mass of flames in a few minutes. The conflagration raged as furiously as a prairie fire and crossed the street where lumber was piled. The firemen managed to keep the fire from Henry K. Field and Co's mill adjoining, and thus saved King street warehouses from the conflagration which seemed doomed for a time. The "Firefighter" came to the rescue on that occasion. Apart from these disasters there have in the same time been several dangerous fires at the fertilizer plant, W. A. Smoot and Co's coal yard and at other points nearby. In September, 1911, the Globe Mills, a square away were totally destroyed by fire.

JAPANESE SHIP SUNK BY MINE

Ill-Fated Vessel Light Cruiser Patroling Coast of Kiachow.

344 ARE DROWNED

Thirteen Survivors Rescued by Ships of Japanese Navy—No Details of Disaster Received.

Tokyo, Oct. 19.—The Japanese light cruiser Takachiho has been sunk by striking a German floating mine while patroling the coast off the harbor entrance of Kiaochow, the German concession of the Shahtung peninsula.

Three hundred and forty-four of her crew were lost with her. Only thirteen survivors were rescued by warships which went to the rescue.

No details of the disaster, the first of any real consequence to the Japanese navy in the present war, have been received.

The Takachiho was one of the oldest of the Japanese cruisers. She was built in 1885, was of 3,700 tons displacement; speed, 18.50 knots; and was armed with eight six-inch guns, two six-pounders, and fourteen machine guns. When she was remodeled in 1900, four torpedo tubes were installed.

Anxiety in Syria.

London Oct., 19—The Constantinople correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Company says that considerable disquietude prevails in Syrian ports owing to reports that the French contemplate an attack. Many of the inhabitants are leaving for the interior.

The governor of Alexandretta is reported to have threatened to burn the town should British and French warships appear at that port. Similar uneasiness is manifest at Smyrna, in view of which American Ambassador Morgenthau was requested by the porte not to send the American cruiser North Carolina, which has been distributing funds for American refugees, to Symrna, as the arrival of the warship might be misinterpreted by the Turkish population and lead to untoward incidents.

WORKER GROUND TO DEATH.

Drawn Into Pulp Mangler, is Taken Out in Bits, by Horrified Mates.

Lock Haven, Pa. Oct. 19—Mangled into bits none larger than three pounds was the horrible death which befell G. C. Krider, of Flemington, at the paper mill of the New York and Pennsylvania Company, when drawn into a pulp grinder early yesterday morning, while working on the night shift.

Krider was pressing damaged paper in the receiving tub, when his hands caught in the cogs and he was quickly drawn into the grinding machinery. A horrified helper summoned aid, but before the machinery could be stopped the man was literally ground to pieces. The big machinery had to be taken apart to remove the mangled remains. Workmen fainted.

UNINTENTIONAL SHOOTING.

Boy Kills Mate, as They Point Innocent-looking Weapons.

Shenandoah, Pa., Oct. 19—John Romanski, 15 years old, shot and killed Charles, 17 year old son of John Richardson, of Brownsville, a suburb yesterday evening.

The boys were playing in an empty, recently-raided speak-easy in West Shenandoah township when they found an army rifle and a shotgun. Thinking both weapons empty, the boys pointed them at each other's heads and pulled the triggers. Young Richardson held the army rifle which proved to be empty, but the gun contained a shell, which blew the top of his head off.

Romanski went into hysterics, but was locked up, with a guard in the corridor of the jail to watch him. It is feared he will lose his reason.

The British navy Saturday avenged the Hawke, the British cruiser sunk off the coast of Scotland by a German submarine's torpedo, by sending to the bottom four German torpedo-boat destroyers off the coast of Holland.

Cholera is assuming the proportion of an epidemic and spreading in the most alarming fashion in Galicia and Hungary. Ten thousand cases are reported to have occurred in a single city in North Hungary, mostly among the troops. The authorities are powerless to combat the outbreak, which is so virulent that the Russians are said to have decided to give up the invasion of Hungary, as they do not wish to expose their troops to the risk of contagion.

Spikes drawn from three rail lengths of ties, and bolts pulled from a number of joints by unknown persons yesterday caused the injury of fifteen passengers through derailment of Southern Pacific train No 11 a half mile east of Broussard, La. None of the injured is believed to be fatally hurt. Officials expressed the belief that the wreck was planned by bandits who had hoped to rob passengers and the express car. Every car in the train, which was traveling at a speed of 35 miles an hour, was derailed.

In Chicago last week members of one of the prominent churches agreed to subscribe for a $5,000 insurance policy for their pastor. A group of persons agreed to pay 1 cent a week to make the policy possible. It cost $128 a year. It was pointed out by one of the leaders of the movement that the death of the pastor of his church brought the idea to his mind. The Rev. William W. Wilson, of St. Mark's Church, was killed by a street car.

A Havas agency dispatch from Athens says the earthquake of Saturday destroyed the villages of Kapsreli and Pyri, near Thebes. At Thebes the shocks were accompanied by subterranean rumblings. The Grecian province of Boeotia suffered most. Twenty distinct shocks were felt there. Another dispatch from Athens says all the houses in Thebes were ruined. The railway stations on the Larca line suffered much and a good deal of daniage was done at Praeus. Atlante and Chelkis experienced severe property losses. Shocks were felt in the Peleponessus, Cyclades, Euboea, and Ionan Islands.

A strange story is told in San Antonio, Tex., accusing Lavourne Victor E. Innes and his wife of the murder of Mrs. Elois Nelms Dennis and her sister, Miss Beatrice Nelms, daughter of a former sheriff of Atlanta, Ga. Having borrowed $10,000 from Mrs. Dennis on false pretenses, winning her affection and promising to marry her, Innes killed her and her sister to prevent exposure for perfidy. It is charged that Innes trapped the sisters in a cottage he had rented in San Antonio, and murdered them. Further, it is alleged that after killing the sisters he used a meat grinding machine for making their flesh into pulp, thus easily to be disposed of, and that, to rid himself of the skeletons, he filled a cesspool back of his home with sulphuric acid and left the bones of the women to be eaten away.

There is a persistent report in diplomatic circles that the Kaiser is trying to compel the United States to recognize him as the ruler of Belgium. The first intimation of such a possible intention was the courteous hint to Brand Whitlock, the American Minister at Brussels, that his mission to what had been Belgium is ended, now that the country was under German rule. He was told that the Germans would be very glad if he would remain in Brussels as a private citizen. It is declared that the Germans thought to provoke the United States government into the recognition of the Kaiser as the Belgian ruler by protesting to the German imperial government against the attempt to disturb Minister Whitlock in the pursuance of his diplomatic duties.

GERMANS NEAR CITY OF DUNKIRK

Cross Belgian Border Near Coast—Carry Heavy Siege Guns.

WILL SOON ATTACK.

Extreme Left Wing of Allies Made Up of Combined Belgian-French Forces—No Official News.

London, Oct., 19—The Rotterdam correspondent of the Daily Mail wires that it is reported from Berlin that the Germans have succeeded in crossing the Belgian border near the coast and that they are now only ten miles from Dunkirk. The correspondent adds that the Germans are accompanied by heavy siege guns, and that it is understood an attack on the Dunkirk forts will soon begin.

There is no official confirmation of the report here. It is stated at the war office that no report has been received which would indicate that the Germans had crossed the French frontier. However it is pointed out that the extreme left wing of the allied line is now made up of a combined Belgian-French force and it is stated that news of its falling back would first come from Paris.

TIMES CHANGE.

Cossacks Would Be Hailed on Delivery in Paris.

Paris, Sept. 29, (by mail to New York,)—Alittle man all bundled up York,)—A little ma nall bundled up in coats drove up this very street on December day a centurs ago and rushed into a building in this very park, tore through the halls, dashed into certain room and there threw his arms around the Empress of France. He was Napoleon, back from Moscow, where the Russians had all but shattered him. Two days later he told France the story and France shuddered at the name of Russia.

But today that street is thrilling with hope at the thought that somewhere, in the fog of war, huge Cossacks from Moscow itself, perhaps were coming by land or by sea, with their wild horses, to save this street and palace and the great art galleries and Paris and France itself from the Germans.

Philadelphia, Pa. Oct. 19—Trampled upon by a horse in a stable at No. 5545 Arch street, while he was asleep in the hay Edward Kenny, 41 years old, who lived in the stable, received injuries which resulted in his death early yesterday morning. DEATH GRAPPLE IN FRANCE

Germans Confident Force Set Free by Fall of Antwerp Will Turn Tide

Berlin, Oct., 19—All signs indicate that a change is impending in the protracted struggle in northern France, where for weeks the hostile armies have faced each other in such strongly entrenched positions that neither has been able to advance except at enormous cost. The principal effects of the mutual flanking operations has been to extend the battle lines without either side finding a weak spot.

The German army which besieged Antwerp is now free, and the invading forces have been strengthened otherwise for an assault against some point in the extended battle front. Rigid secrecy is preserved as to the point chosen for this offensive movement.

The bulletins given out by German headquarters throw no light on the nature of the struggle which unmistakably is impending. America is perhaps better informed concernnig it than is Germany. The latest bulletin reports the stereotyped, "The situation is unchanged."

Reports from the front state that the entrenched positions in the center have become full-fledged fortresses The infantry is lodged in such elaborately protected shelter pits that damage is done only when a heavy shell strikes squarly. Scraps of shell fragments do not penetrate. The soldiers have introduced mattresses, tables and other comforts into these underground rooms in which they live in comparative comfort, except when it is necessary to man the the trenches against infantry attacks. Heavy artillery is plated in masses near the line. These guns include the 25 which were captured from the fortresses at Givet France.

The French still hold the eastern frontier fortress line, although a number of barrier forts have fallen. A letter from a German officer who was before Toul describes the art with which the French defend every yard before and between the fortresses.

The French infantry is sheltered in three-story trenches. The bomb proof even in the infantry positions are roofed with concrete against which all except the heaviest shells are ineffective. Cannon in disappearing armored turrets answer the continued German fire.

In houses outside the French lines have been found cellar telescopes by means of which the position of the German batteries has been betrayed Dogs carried letters, and carrier pigeons were used, until the dogs were shot and the pigeons were eaten.

WOLVES PURSUT SOLDIERS.

Great Packs Follow in Wake of Battles in Galicia.

Odessa, Oct. 19—The battles in Galicia have brought out all the beasts and birds of the Polish forests in wild alarm. Scenting the lakes of blood that cover the battle fields, the wolves are out in great packs, and even pursue the victors whose boots and clothes are crusted with blood after the fights, to their camps. Often at night a volley has to be fired into the pack to disperse the intruders.

FIERCE BATTLE NEAR OSTEND

Germans Reported to be Unable to Pierce Allies Line.

DRIVE ENEMY BACK.

Heavy Rains and Cold Weather Hamper Operations—All Roads Have Been Badly Damaged.

Paris, Oct. 19—The German in-

Paris, Oct., 19—The German invasion of France by way of southern Belgium has been checked.

The official communique issued issued this afternoon so decares.

The Germans have been driven back from the sea coast as far as Roulers and the line to Dunkirk, strongly held by a combined French Belgian army, is intact.

The general battle line now extends almost due north and south from Arras, with heavy fighting in the vicinity of Lille and La Bassee.

Military headquarters here continues increasingly optimistic. It is believed the entire German strength has been tried and has been found wanting. The proposed second attempt on Paris by way of the seacoast and the rich valley of the Seine is now expected to be abandoned and already, in many quarters, can be heard the declaration that the retirement of the Germans entirely from northern France is in sight.

Paris, Oct., 19—Severe fighting southwest of Ostend, near Nieuport; south of Thourout, in Belgium; and between Lille and Armentieres is reported in this morning's bulletins at military headquarters.

The official reports indicate that the Germans are not in sufficent force to penetrate the allied lines at the extreme northwest, just north of the Belgian border. Little early change is looked for at this point.

Between Arras and the neighborhood of Soissons the allies continue to drive the enemy back and at points have driven wedges into the German line which reaches to the main line of intrenched positions maintained directly west of the main lines of German communications.

It is believed that the Germans will be compelled to evacuate St. Mihiel very shortly, inasmuch as the French advance is proceeding steadily near that point, the most advanced of the German positions on the right.

The French armies operating from Nancy and Toul continue their efforts to penetrate the valley of the Moselle, the objective being Metz.

Operations are being decidedly hampered by the heavy rains and cold weather. Official and unofficial reports received from the north agree that all roads have been badly damaged by the transport of heavy guns and supply trains, and that they are difficult of passage, while the fields generally are veritable bogs, through which men and horses flounder. Automobiles forced to leave the highways become mired and are hard to rescue. The weather is also very cold, and this added to the dampness, is a natural handicap felt more by the Germans that by the allies.

Reports that small torpedo boats are utilizing the canals in the north to aid the allies in their operations are widely circulated.

Although the official communications fail to make any definite claims of big successes, all information reaching General Gallieni's headquarters indicate that the main strength of the German offensive has been greatly weakened by the operations of the last fortnight. The reenforcements released through the fall of Antwerp, it is claimed here, reached the extreme right wing of the Germans just in time to prevent the enforced retirement of the armies of Generals von Kluck and von Boehn.

Martha Washington Chapter, No. 42, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, October 20th, at 7:15 o'clock. At 8:30 o'clock the same evening an open meeting will be held in observance of its third birthday.

The headquarters of the company will be moved on Friday from the old building to the new structure.

The invited guests to the banquet on Thursday will include the city officials, the new and old members of City Council, the officers of the other fire companies in Alexandria and several prominent citizens. It will be served in the engine room on the first floor. John H. Trimyer, president of the company, will preside. A number of speeches will be made and there will be a musical program.

IRATE BULL BUTTS TRAIN

Taurus Dents Car, Then Rambles Back to Pasture

Sunbury, Pa., Oct. 19.—A big Alderney bull in a pasture field owned by Charles Gonsar, a farmer, near Snydertown, today took offense at the whistling of an express train on the Philadelphia & Reading Railway, which passes close by. Taurus jumped a five rail fence and plunged headforemost against the side of a car and then fell close to the tracks as though dead.

The train was stopped and the crew went back only to see the animal rise and run back into its pasture. The impact made a dent in the side of the car as big as a dinner pail.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING

Revival Services Conducted By Evangelist Starke Largely Attended Again.

One of the largest crowds that ever gathered at Trinity M. E. Church, assembled there at an early hour last night to hear Evangelist Starke's sermon on the "Old Ship Zion." The text was Luke 8.22-26. He pictured very graphically two ships starting from Alexandria to Eternity. The first was ship "Pleasure of the World." The passengers who took passage on this ship were those who were worldly-minded, and they were overtaken by a destructive storm while sailing toward Eternity. The other ship, "The Old Ship Zion," was in charge of Captain Jesus. Its passengers were composed of the redeemed of the earth, who were on their way to the Celestial City. The entire address was a vivid picture, and the service was impressive, and interesting.

Quite a large number promised to lead Christian lives in the future. About forty have professed conversion since the meetings began.

The meeting at Trinity Church in the morning was also well-attended, at which time Mr. Starke preached one of the best sermons of the entire series.

The meeting at the Surprise Theatre was a surprise to all in attendance. The subject of the evangelist's address was "Man Wreckers," While this was one of the evangelist's talks to men, yet it was so delicately handled that no one could take offence at what was said. Mr. Starke spoke nearly two hours. Over thirty men asked for prayers.

The evangelist has been urged to repeat this address next Sunday for some who failed to hear it yesterday.

Tonight and every night this week the meetings are to be conducted at the M. E. Church South, and Mr. Starke will preach at 7:30 o'clock. Street service of song at 7:15 p. m.

BODY RECOVERED.

Justice Kirby Holds Inquest Over Remains in Fairfax County.

The body of a young man, supposed to be that of Eldridge Norris, sixteen years old, whose home was in St. Mary's county, Md., who as was stated in the Gazette at the time, was drowned from the schooner John Dixon last week, was found floating off Wellington Villa, four miles below Alexandria Saturday morning.

Magistrate Kirby, of Fairfax county, in the afternoon held an inquest and the jury returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death from causes unknown. The body was buried near where found.

The only clue which leads to the belief that the body was that of Norris was in a letter found in the dead man's pocket, which evidently was to have been mailed, addressed to J. J. Gibson, 11th street wharf, care of Joe Chivelyl, Washington. The letter was dated Abell, Md., and directed the person to whom it was addressed to make certain purchases for the writer. It was signed "Brother Jerry."

Norris at the time he was drowned was off River View, on his way up the river aboard the schooner John Dixon, which was in charge of Capt. John Gibson. It was so warm in the cabin, that Norris went on deck and it was supposed, accidentally fell overboard.

The body was subsequently identified by the father yesterday morning and after having been exhumed was taken on board a motorboat to be interred in St. Mary's county, Md.

TRAINING LAY WORKERS.

New Educational Institution Conducted Under Auspices of Southern Presbyterian Church.

Richmond, Oct. 19—Fostered by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, South, a new institution of learning, the Training School for Lay Workers, will be opened in this city on November 4. For the present, the school will occupy an entire floor in the new building just erected by the Presbyterian Committee of Publication, on Sixth Street, near Main, but eventually will have its own group of buildings near the Union Theological Seminary, in Ginter Park.

The school was authorized at the last meeting of the General Assembly, and will be under the control of a board of directors, two from the executive committee of the assembly and four at large. Regular courses of study, covering a period of two years and leading to a diploma, will be provided.

The scholastic year, except the first term, will extend through the calendar year, and will be divided into four terms, of three months each. The summer term will probably be held elsewhere.

TO SUE MORGAN FOR WILL.

State of Virginia to Begin Proceedings Against New York Millionaire.

Richmond, Va. Oct. 19—Suit for the recovery of the last will and testament of Martha Washington, wife of General George Washington, will be instituted in the Supreme Court of the United States by the State of Virginia against J. Pierpont Morgan, of New York.

This announcement is made by Attorney-General John Garland Pollard. Attorney-General Pollard said the suit would be filed during the present term of the Supreme Court, now sitting in Washington.

In accordance with act passed by the last general assembly Fairfax county, in whose court records the will lawfully belongs, will be represented by counsel in the suit. Attorney General Polaird today stated he had received notification from the board of supervisors in Fairfax county that they had selected Attorney John S. Barbour of Fairfax as their representative in the suit. It is probable that Attorney-General Pollard and Attorney Barbour will hold a conference in Richmond before the suit is formally filed in the Supreme Court.

The filing of the suit will mean that Virginia has given up all hope of recovering the priceless will of Martha Washington by any other than stern legal means.

BANDITS HOLD UP CAR.

Baltimore Suburb Scene of Daring Crimes, one of Which Will Cost Feminine Sleuth Life.

Baltimore, Md. Oct. 19—Flagged by a red lantern in Wild Western style, a suburban electric car of the Ellicott City line was halted on Edmondson avenue early yesterday morning by a masked highwayman, who climbed aboard and at the point of a pistol made Conductor Thurman Richardson hand over $20. After keeping the few passengers on the car in a state of terror for several minutes, the robber ordered the motor-man to put on full speed and then sprang from the car and disappeared into a cemetery. When the robber boarded the car he ordered the motorman to step back and keep quiet.

Confesses Two Murders

Petersburg, Va., Oct. 19.—A negro giving his name as J. C. Curtis, surrendered to Chief of Police L. Grammer, of Disputants, last night and confessed to the killing of his wife and a man named Henry Hobbs, near Wilson, Dinwiddie county, last Sunday night. Curtis was brought to this city by Chief Grammer and is being held for an investigation by the Dinwiddie authorities. Nothing has been heard of such a murder by Petersburg police and it is thought that Curtis is insane, though he talks intelligently.

Episcopal Women to Meet.

Purcellville, Va., Oct. 19.—The Woman's Auxiliary of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Virginia will hold its annual meeting in Leesburg November 4 and 5. Bishop Gibson, of the Diocese of Virginia, will attend, and Bishop Lloyd, president of the Board of Missions, will also be present. It is also believed that Bishop Kinsolving, of Brazil, and Bishop Coadjutor-elect Brown will be in Leesburg for both days of the auxiliary.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

Newport News Gets One of Two Battleships Recently Authorized.

Washington, Oct. 19.—The Navy Department announces that one of the two battleships recently authorized by Congress will be built by the New York Shipbuilding Company for $7,250,000, and one by the Newport News Shipbuilding Company for $7,115,000. The third battleship, the construction of which was made possible by the sale of the Idaho and the Mississippi, will be built at the New York Navy Yard, on plans similar to the two others, but the type of machinery has not yet been decided upon.

The three warships will represent the newest and best things in naval construction, and will on general lines follow the Pennsylvania. The plans and specifications for these vessels have been published.

Two Drown.

Heathsville, Va., Oct. 19.—Daniel Pinchard and companion, a youth by the name of Currie, both colored, were drowned in Dividing Creek Wednesday afternoon while under the influence of whisky. Neither boy was over eighteen. They went direct from Kilmarnock, where they were observed to be intoxicated, and came near running down a lady as they drove out in a roadcart, to Ditchley, and took a leaking boat, which filled before they got across the creek.

TRAIN DERAILED.

Fast Southbound Flier Has Narrow Escape in Passing Chatham

Chatham, Va., Oct. 19.—Southbound train number 35, due here about four o'clock Saturday, while near the depot on the side track was derailed, the engine, tender and express car leaving the rails and colliding with a tank car standing close by. No one was hurt and traffic was not delayed other than getting an engine to proceed with the remainder of the train. Just what caused the derailment is not definitely known, but it is believed the recent heavy rain had caused softening of the road bed which gave away under the heavy train. The train was moving very slowly and this prevented a serious damage being done. Usually this train passes here at a high rate of speed.

BELGIUM FACES FAMINE.

Committee in London to Secure Supplies, and U. S. Will Aid.

London, Oct. 19—E. Franqui and Baron Lambert, prominent Belgian bankers, have arrived in London for the purpose of forwarding the movement to procure supplies for Belgium. They report the situation in Brussels is getting critical, the populace having only black bread, the supply of which is limited, while several other towns are almost without any food. They say a national committee has been formed, wherein United States Minister Brand Whitlock takes part for the purpose of looking after all Belgian relief. It is hoped this committee will co-operate with him.

An American committee headed by Page and Whitlock will shortly be formed if the American Government gives official sanction. There is reason to believe the German Government assents to the proposal of the shipment of supplies through American diplomatic establishments. When this formal assent comes the agents of the Beligan committee will immediately purchase grain to the extent of $500,000 and ship it to Brussels.

KILLS HIMSELF BEFORE SON.

Washington County Farmer Fires Load of Shot Through Head.

Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 19.—Emanuel Hoffman, 55 years old, tenant on Judge James Findlay's farm, near Williamsport, committed suicide yesterday morning by shooting off the top of his head with a double-barreled shotgun in the yard of his home. He placed the butt of the gun on one end of a board seat between two trees, put the muzzle to his forehead and pulled the trigger with his thumb.

His young son, Victor, who was in the house, heard the report of gun and saw his father fall from the seat. Dr. J. Walter Layman, Williamsport, was summoned and examined the body.

A rope, with a noose, at one end, was found hanging to a ladder in the wagon shed. It is believed that before he shot himself he tried to end his life by hanging.

Surviving are his widow and nine children.

DROWNS ON RIVER OUTING.

Clandestine Boat Trip of Two Sisters Ends in Death of One.

Chester, Pa. Oct. 19—Drowning was the outcome of a clandestine river outing which Agnes Diamond took with her sister Sara, yesterday after telling their mother they were going to church.

Instead they went out on the river in the yacht Mermaid, with Charles Shaw, of Norwood.

The trip was to be a genuine "joy party" on the river. The boat's commissary had been generously stored.

While other members of the party were enjoying a feast in the cabin, Shaw, who was in the bow steering heard a splash and a woman's cry for help from Agnes Diamond. Being unable to release his hold on the wheel, Shaw shouted for Oxsenfeld, who rushed on deck, jumped overboard and dived several times after the drowning girl. He was finally pulled into the boat, exhausted, while Miss Diamond sank to her death.

It required the combined efforts of other members of the party to prevent Sara Diamond from jumping into the river when her sister failed to again come to the surface, "Save Agnes, boys, do save her," she pleaded, "what will mother say?".

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Mrs. Elizabeth Faber, 38 years old a policewoman, hovers between life and death in Franklin Square Hospital, Baltimore with a bullet wound in her right breast, the victim of a purse snatcher, for the capture of whom she had been used as a decoy. In an adjoining room lies Patrolman George W. Popp, who was shot at the same time the policewoman was wounded. Popp is suffering with bullet wounds in his right thigh and right side, but will recover.

BUSINESS PROSPERITY.

No Reason for Industrial Depression.

Prosperity is a happy state. It depends upon good credit, stable prices, employment of wage earners and a general confidence in the future.

Of late there seems to have been an unnecessary amount of business depression, due mostly to the lack of fairness of one class toward another, and to a little dishonesty or overgrasping scattered through all the classes, but not in a majority of any of them.

In a country of our enormous natural wealth, we should have little to worry about. The United States, with its insular possessions and Alaska, is nearly as large as Europe. Our coasts are indented with excellent harbors and intersected by internal waterways, and we have, by far, the finest and cheapest cost railroad transportation in the whole world, making communication cheap and easy. We have tremendous water power and every variety of climate and soil. Magnificent forests cover a great area of our territory. Our land is liberally stocked with almost every variety of mineral wealth, and with our vast agricultural wealth we lead the world in a great many things.

When corporations are renovated and their ills aired by publicity, and when business men begin to feel a renewed confidence, and when political "cure alls" who have never made a success of their own affairs, quit offering "remedies" for all sorts of imaginary troubles; when we have full publicity in politics and in government; when business managers and employees treat each other fairly, the causes for apparent depression will disappear and real prosperity will return and stay with us.

Certain-teed Roll Roofing is guaranteed 5 years for 1-ply, 10 years for 2-ply and 15 years for 3-ply, and the written guarantee is backed by the assets of our big mills.

In addition to above we also make a complete line of other roofings, building papers, etc. Ask your dealer. He will be glad to give you further information about our goods and will quote you reasonable prices.

STRICKEN BELGIUM.

Virtually all of Belgium is now occupied by a hostile army, and what was a few months ago a small and happy kingdom, is now the camping ground for hordes of invaders brought from Germany for the purpose of crushing France. The streets of her cities which are deserted, are strewn with what fugitives abandoned, and filled with barking, moaning, abandoned dogs. Belgium was guilty of no overt act to bring such a disaster upon her. She merely asked to be let alone and enjoy her rights as a neutral; she objected to the German army passing through her country, and for this the little nation lies bleeding with the haughty eagle gloating over its victim. A cartoonist represents the stricken nation as a woman lying prostrate upon the earth, with a vulture, representing Germany, about to feast upon her.

Her people are furious, and her gallant king and determined army have determined to die before they will recognize the supremacy of the invaders. The Belgians are now with the allies and will fight to a finish.

We are told that the Spartan women were wont to clip their locks and make bow strings for their men when they went to war. There is much of the Spartan in the people of Belgium today, and the women are making heroic sacrifices in this terrible crisis. Many persons in America are sending aid.

The Belgian Minister, Mr. E. Havenith, has been deeply touched by the spontaneous aid given by the American people to stricken Belgians, driven from their homes by war. Funds are reaching the legation in Washington from all directions. A little 7 year old boy has written that he wants to send money he had earned himself to the Belgians. Inclosed was 15 copper cents. A mother wrote saying her little girl wanted to "give up the movies for a week for the poor Belgians, and inclosed a modest donation."

It is often noticed that Providence raises up men suited for high positions at opportune times. It was so at the outbreak of the war between the states, when Lincoln was in the Presidential chair and Seward was Secretary of State. These worthies with their coadjutors of less light, steered the ship of state through the troubled seas of that time without getting into any serious muddle with foreign nations.

The world is passing through a terrible crisis at present, and members of both political parties realize the worth of Woodrow Wilson and his associates who have kept the nation clear of trouble at a time which surpasses any in the history of the planet.

President Wilson has made public a letter to Majority Leader Underwood, of the House, in which he reviews the achievements of his administration, outlines the program for the next session of Congress, and declares "the Democratic party is now in fact the only instrument ready to the country's hand by which anything can be accomplished."

The President wrote the letter as an indorsement of all Democratic members of Congress in lieu of speeches he said he would like to make in every congressional district. He predicted victory for his party in the elections because "every thoughtful man sees that a change of parties just now would set the clock back, not forward," and because "a practical nation is not likely to reject such a team full of the spirit of public service, and substitute, in the midst of great tasks, either a party upon which a deep demoralization has fallen or a party which has not grown to a stature that would warrant its assuming the responsible burdens of state."

These words should appeal to all.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S FIRE.

The fierce fire at Charles King & Sons' warehouses last Saturday night was one of several spectacular conflagrations which have taken place in the same vicinity in past years. The origin is unknown, but it is generally supposed to have resulted from natural causes. This may be so, but in view of the fact that there have been incendiary fires in Alexandria recently, some people are disposed to believe that the destruction of the structures was possibly caused by a firebug.

A few nights ago a frame house on Union street, between Wilkes and Gibbon, was burned by a pyromaniac, and on two occasions in about as many weeks the old frame station of the Washington Southern Railway Company, on the northeast corner of Cameron and Fayette streets, has been found to be burning.

Fortunately but little wind was prevailing Saturday night when the fire at the King warehouse was discovered. Hence the firemen, by arduous labor, succeeded in confining the flames to the buildings in which they originated. Otherwise there is no telling where the fire would have stopped.

Many years ago the Jamieson Cracker bakery was situated on the site now covered by the King buildings. It was occupied at the time by the late George R. Hill as a bakery. It was about to be set on fire one night, but the police, fortunately, surprised the would-be incendiaries and subdued the flames before serious damage followed.

What the New York police declare to have been a deliberate attempt upon the life of G. Fra Ferni, the Italian consul general in that city, came yesterday in a terrific explosion in the basement of a fashionable apartment hotel at Fifth avenue and Eleventh street. Mr. Ferni lives in the building. This is the third attempt upon Mr. Ferni's life in three months.

The Peking correspondent of the London Exchange Telegraph Company has sent the following dispatch: "The German charge de affaires here has received from Berlin a lengthy dispatch, which, it is believed, sanctions the capitulation of Tsingtau (seat of government of the German protectorate of Kiauchau) under certain conditions."

PRICE MAINTENANCE.

Its Necessity to Aid Consumer.

Many big industries engaged in national trade have often in the past done openly what the small concerns in their limited fields have done secretly—varied prices according to the degree of competition at different times and places. Their object has been to secure the highest price to be had, irrespective of whether the buyer was held up or not.

The principle of selling goods at a close margin at one place to meet or to kill competition, and charging a high price, to make up for it, where little or no competition exists, is economically wrong and unfair to the buyer. Every article offered for sale should have a uniform price plainly marked upon it.

Manufacturers will then have to see that the price of their goods is a reasonable one, so they will sell, and at the same time they will provide enough profit to pay the jobber and dealer fairly for handling the goods at a uniform price. This will inspire confidence in the consumer, because he will know the price can not be cut and must, therefore, be a reasonable one to permit the goods to sell. He will buy such goods in preference to a small selling article sold at exaggerated profits.

Everybody will benefit from price maintenance in this way. It will protect the manufacturer who has built up well-known brands, also the newcomer who is seeking to do so. Distributors will be protected in handling it at a fair profit, and they will not be forced, through fear of cut-throat competition, to build up their own private brands at much expense.

When you buy Certain-teed you have our real guarantee that it will last at least five years for 1-ply, ten years for 2-ply and fifteen years for 3-ply, and this guarantee is backed by the world's largest roofing mills.

There is a dealer in your city or town who handles Certain-teed products. He will be glad to give you information and prices.

Why Not Publish It?

When you want a fact to become generally known, the right way is to publish it. Mrs. Joseph Kallans, Peru Ind., was troubled with belching sour stomach and frequent headaches. She writes, "I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlain's Tablets have done for me. They have helped my digestion and regulated my bowels. Since using them I have been entirely well." What Would You Do?

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all dealers.

ARE YOU A MATHEMATICIAN?

Then Solve This Problem and Win a Prize of $25,000.

The largest single prize offered for a scientific discovery is still going begging. The prize has been open to competition for many years. At first sight the problem for a solution of which the prize is offered looks no more difficult than those with which high school students are familiar, but many of the greatest mathematicians in the world have tried to solve the problem and given it up in despair.

It is known as Fermat's problem. Nearly 300 years ago Fermat, one of the greatest mathematicians who ever lived, stated that the equation $x^n+y^n=z^n$ could not be satisfied by whole numbers when n is an odd prime number different from unity. The problem may be stated in another way—viz, that $x^n+y^n=z^n$ cannot be satisfied when n is any integer greater than 2. The one follows as a logical conclusion from the other.

The Academy of Sciences of Goettingen, Germany, offers a prize of 100,000 marks (about $25,000) for proof of this assertion. This is the prize that is going begging.

Dr. Joseph Bowden, professor of mathematics, Adelphi college, Brooklyn, asked by the Scientific American to state the precise conditions for winning the prize, writes that the Academy of Sciences will not consider any manuscripts sent in, but only proposed solutions printed and offered for sale as monographs, in books on mathematics or in mathematical periodicals. The award will not be made until two years after the publication of the memoir in order that mathematicians may have ample opportunity to test and criticise the solution.

The object of these restrictions is to save the academy from being flooded with undigested manuscripts. It will only consider solutions that have stood the test of some competent editor of publisher in the first place.

FRANCE IN SOUTH AMERICA.

Its Influence in the Melting Pot of the Latin Races.

South America is the melting pot of the Latin races, and the French influence now seems to predominate over that of Spain. Italy is well represented, especially in strong Argentina. Brazil seems to be the most polyglot of them all, for here the native Portuguese is mingled not only with the Spanish and French and English, but a great deal of German. In the south of Brazil 90 per cent of the people speak German, and Portuguese is not always enforced as the language even of the public schools.

The large German colonies here do not affiliate with these people as they do with the Anglo-Saxon brothers of the north. They live to themselves, they retain their own language and customs. In Chile, where there are many English, too, the Germans direct the education of the country. Buenos Aires is close to this Germanic group in southern Brazil and feels its influence, though Argentina seems the most unified and progressive of the republics in point of literary expression and culture.

French influence also is felt in Brazil. Rio de Janeiro itself was founded as a refuge for French Huguenots, though they were afterward driven back. In Paris today one hears that a youth is to emigrate to America, but probably it is to Rio that he is going. There are many French immigrants, and French is required in most of the schools and is next to the native tongue in importance in northern Brazil. Formerly in Brazil Spanish or German always came next to French, but it is said that some of the states now require English as the third language and that Brazilians are proud of their English.—Christian Science Monitor.

Suspicious.

Ernest Vizetelly, who has published a record of his experiences during the Franco-Prussian war, tells a story to illustrate the popular mania for discovering "treason" that prevailed in Paris.

He says that one day a soldier remarked to a comrade:

"I am sure that the captain is a traitor."

"How's that?" was the rejoinder.

"Well," said the suspicious soldier, "have you not noticed that every time he orders us to march forward we invariably encounter the enemy?"

Executions in Europe.

Methods of putting criminals to death vary. In Europe the guillotine is the mode of execution most generally employed. Austria, Holland and Portugal are the only other countries besides Great Britain where criminals are hanged. In Oldenburg they are shot, in Brunswick they are beheaded, and in Spain they are garroted.—London Telegraph.

Diplomacy.

"You persuaded your husband to join a glee club?"

"Yes," answered Mrs. Biggins; "when he starts to sing at home I can now advise him not to tire his voice, and when he sings in the club I can't hear him."—Washington Star.

Needed Airing.

"What's the matter with you?" demanded Borem hotly. "I've got a right to air my opinions, haven't I?"

"Oh, of course," replied Brightly. "They're so stale and musty they certainly need something of that sort."—Philadelphia Press.

The clothing of our minds certainly ought to be regarded before that of our bodies.—Steele.

FATHER STUMPED THEM.

A Test in Mental Arithmetic That Worried the Students.

They had a schoolboy and schoolgirl party at a Brooklyn man's house the other night. Father and mother were permitted to mingle with the young folks for awhile after the edge of the first fun had worn off. There were games that the elder folks knew nothing about, and they sat like wallflowers.

Finally a game of arithmetic was started by a boy who is considered the best cipherer of his class in the high school. After several problems had been given of an odd nature, over which there were much laughing and puzzling, father dared to speak up. Said he:

"Boys and girls, they used to give us this example in mental arithmetic when I went to school. I suppose it will be easy for you, but it's the best I can suggest to take part in the game." And he recited this couplet:

If a third of six were three
What would a fourth of twenty be?

The score of boys and girls present went at it. They wrinkled their brows, and they pursed their lips. The use of pencil and paper was not permitted.

The mathematician had not been among the first to try an answer. He was plainly a little perplexed. He asked to have the problem repeated and wanted father to reassure him that it was a mental arithmetic example. Finally he, too, gave an answer. But father shook his head.

"Well, then, papa, for goodness' sake tell us what it can be," said his daughters.

"The answer is seven and a half, and I'm surprised to see that I'm able to stump all you high school stars," grinned father. "Come, mother, we may as well depart. They don't play the same arithmetic games that we did."

The high school mathematician at first declared that father was in error. But next day he admitted that the answer was correct and that all had been stumped.—New York Sun.

AN OLD TALE OF TWO CITIES.

Travel From New York to Philadelphia In Stage Wagon Days.

In the New York Gazette or Weekly Post Boy of May 9, 1768, appeared this notice:

To the Public:

That the Stage-Waggons, kept by John Barnhill, in Elm-Street, in Philadelphia, and John Mercereau, at the New-Blazing Star, near New-York, continues their Stages in two Days, from Powles-Hook Ferry, opposite New-York, to Philadelphia: returns from Philadelphia to Powles-Hook in two Days also; they will endeavor to oblige the Publick by keeping the best of Waggons and sober Drivers, and sets out from Powle-Hook and Philadelphia, on Mondays and Thursdays, punctually at Sunrise, and meets at Prince Town the same Nights, to exchange Passengers, and each return the Day after:

Those who are kind enough to encourage the Undertaking, are desired to cross Powles-Hook Ferry the Evenings before, as they must set off early. The Price for each Passenger is Ten Shillings to Prince Town, and from thence to Philadelphia, Ten Shillings more, Ferriage free: There will be but two Waggons, but four sets of fresh Horses, so it will be very safe for any Person to send Goods, as there are but two Drivers; they may exchange their Goods without any Mistake.

Persons may now go from New-York to Philadelphia, and back again in five Days, and remain in Philadelphia two Nights and one Day to do their Business in: The Publick may be assured that this Road is much the Shortest, than any other to Philadelphia, and regular Stages will be kept by the Publick's obliged humble Servants,

JOHN MERCEREAU and JOHN BARNHILL.

To Prevent Exaggeration.

There was once a gentleman who, having killed a man, presented himself to the editor of a newspaper. "I have come," he said, "to tell you about a painful occurrence at my house. My brother-in-law and I had an argument, and I stabbed him, and then, in the excitement of the moment, I cut his throat. Knowing what exaggerated stories are apt to get into the newspapers, I thought I had better step around and tell you exactly what did happen."—London Spectator.

Ice Peaks of New Zealand.

In southern New Zealand the line of perpetual snow is much lower than it is in the Alps of Europe. It varies, of course, in different parts of the range; but, generally speaking, a mountain 12,000 feet in New Zealand carries as much snow and ice as one of 15,000 feet in the Swiss Alps, and New Zealanders point with pride to glaciers comparable to the Aletsch and the Mer de Glace.

Just to Prove It.

"You have squandered my entire fortune."

"Well, before we were married you asked me if I would love you as well if you were poor, and I said I would, and I have made you poor to convince you I told the truth."—Houston Post.

His Genius.

"Why do people think he's a genius? Nobody can understand what he's talking about."

"No, but he can make people believe that he does."—Exchange.

Don't Let a Cold Settle on Your Lungs

Many cases of Lung Trouble can be traced directly to a severe cold which has been neglected, and which, as a result, has affected the lungs. If you have a persistent cough or cold, take warning before it is too late. Eckman's Alterative is most beneficial in such cases and has been the means of completely restoring to health many persons who had serious lung trouble. Read of this case:—

Pleasantville, N. J.

"Gentlemen: During the winter of 1911 I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs. The doctor pronounced it lung trouble. I tried nearly every preparation without any result and kept getting worse. Eckman's Alterative was recommended to me and I commenced using it as a last resort. The first bottle seemed to give no relief; in fact, I seemed to feel worse, but I kept on using the medicine and found out the first bottle had really started me on the road to recovery by loosening the mucus and making me expectorate freely. After using the medicine for some time my cough ceased, I gained flesh and today I am a well man."

(Signed) GEO. M. BATES.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

Check the Symptoms of Lung Trouble

One of the many reasons why Lung Trouble is so difficult to fight is because the disease is often of a very flattering nature. The patient may look well, but in reality is fast losing strength by continued night sweats, fever and cough. These symptoms should be checked as quickly as possible. Eckman's Alterative is beneficial in checking fever and night sweats and it has brought about many complete recoveries. Read this case:—

305 W. 36th St., New York.

"Gentlemen: I am writing you this testimonial that others may know what your Alterative has done for me. Since I was a very young woman I was a sufferer from Bronchitis. I tried doctor after doctor, getting little or no benefit. Finally I had night sweats, weak spells and lost rapidly in weight and my doctor told me if they were not checked I would have Lung Trouble. Miss Mary Korhamer, who is a friend of mine, recovered after taking your Alterative and assisted that I try it. I am now, after two years, perfectly well, strong and healthy." (Affidavit). MRS. ROSA VOELPEL.

(Above abbreviated; more on request.) Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.
